

This is a list of questions to consider and answer when developing an independent government estimate:

- (1) How was the IGE was developed?
- (2) What assumptions where made?
- (3) What information and estimating tools were used?
- (4) Where was the information was obtained?
- (5) How did previous estimates compare with prices paid?