

If you believe that you have been discriminated against, been bullied, hazed, sexually harassed or just want to discuss a situation, please contact office or email our workflow.

Military Complaint Process

Two Reporting Options:

Informal Complaint: A means to have EO concerns processed at the lowest possible level. May include: addressing alleged offender, going through a third party, seeking resolution through the chain of command, or through the use of Alternate Dispute Resolution. NO TIMELINE

Formal Complaint: A means to formally present allegations of unlawful discrimination and/or sexual harassment to the EO office to attempt resolution. Complaint must be submitted within 60 calendar days of the alleged offense.

Civilian Complaint Process

DoD civilians must contact an EO Specialist within 45 calendar days from the alleged incident or when they became aware of the discrimination. (29 CFR 1614.105)

Informal:

- EO attempts to resolve complaint at the lowest.
- The EO Specialist is a neutral party and is not an advocate to the complainant or to management.
- Attempts resolution, to include the use of ADR, based on complainant remedies.

Formal:

- Investigated by the Investigations and Resolutions Division (IRD).
- AF Civilian Appellate Review Office (AFCARO) determines whether or not discrimination has occurred
